Tim Girvin Celebrates 50 years of Creativity with Gathering of Art and Friends

Girvin | Strategic Branding & Design Hosts Evening of Exploration

OCTOBER 20, 2003 – SEATTLE – In a birthday celebration at the offices of Girvin | Strategic Branding & Design, Tim Girvin will showcase a collection of personal art, calligraphy and private journals. The showcase spans Tim’s creative reflections over the course of his lifetime, with some pieces dating back over 40 years to Tim’s youth. This evening is themed as a catalyst for attendees to rekindle their own creativity while spending time in fellowship with the Girvin team members.

“Creativity is always a process of uncovering; it's excavating unseen mysteries, like archaeology... bringing them to the surface; this party celebrates exploratory, on all levels, exposing ‘antiquities’ for all to see...” said Tim Girvin, principal of Girvin | Strategic Branding & Design.

The exploration invites clients and friends of the firm to join in an evening that is part gallery opening and part birthday party. With visual collections from Tim that encompass personal reflections, calligraphic treatments, oil paintings, watercolor, sculpture and etchings, to keepsake imagery prepared for attendees by the entire firm, the evening serves as a way to awaken and share creative thought in a celebratory atmosphere.
